

Outside Sales Representative

Sales representative needed to help us to grow our business to the next level. Sales representative must have the skills needed to market and sell our services and products to a prospected market. Must be a performance driven individual who would like to realize unlimited growth potential in the construction health and safety industry.

Sales representative to take a lead role in contacting past and prospective clients, meetings, proposals, closings, follow up for customer satisfaction. Assist with development of marketing strategies, promotional materials and identify possible new markets.

Minimum prospecting needed, over 750 past clients, high rate of return on proposals.

Individual must have:

- Sales background
- Proven record
- Home office
- Reliable vehicle
- Professional attitude
- Drive to succeed
- Good Communication skills

Position pays a base plus a competitive commission for new sales and re-occurring sales.

* Interested marketing candidates are asked to forward resumes to buildsafe@hotmail.com.

We will respond to candidates we are interested in interviewing.