NAVIGATING THE BUILDING CODE

This Building code course is designed to meet the needs of the contracting industry.

The focus will be on buildings regulated by PART 3 of the Building Code (larger commercial, industrial, residential and institutional types). The course is intended to make the contractor more "CODE SAVVY" and confident in using and interpreting the regulations governing construction.

This is a must for Site Supervisors, Foreman, and Project Managers, or those aspiring to these positions. Other construction service industry professionals such as Architects, Engineers, Developers, Owners Representatives, as well as building and fire department inspectors, will benefit from this course.
