

Foreman Electrician

Accu-Temp Cooling & Heating Systems Inc. – Kitchener, ON

Salary: $30.00-$45.00/hour

Accu-Temp Systems is seeking an experienced and motivated Foreman Electrician to manage BAS install projects throughout Ontario for an immediate start! Experience in the construction field along with strong mechanical and/or electrical background is required.

Responsibilities:

- Installation of fully engineered complete BAS controls systems
- Experience fabricating control panels and working with controls components
- Reading and understanding mechanical/electrical plans and control schematics/wiring diagrams
- Solid understanding of controls sequences with emphasis on HVAC
- Experience running all types of low voltage and communication wiring
- Troubleshoot and commission all control system components (starters, actuators, sensors VFDs)
- Maintain project timelines and attend project coordination meetings
- Providing and maintaining your own personal hand-tools
- Adhering to company health and safety, human resources and accounting policies, procedures and programs at all times
- Ensure all electrical work is done to code

Qualifications:

- Certification of Qualification - Construction and Maintenance Electrician (3rd or 4th year apprentice will be considered based on experience)
- Valid driver's license with clean driving abstract
- Willingness to travel and work throughout Ontario
- Solid communication skills (both written and verbal) are required
- Basic health and safety certificates (WHMIS, working from heights, etc.)
- Must be able to perform the physical requirements of the position
- Experience in the controls field is considered an asset
- Previous experience with BAS controls installs is considered an asset

What we offer:

- Competitive compensation
- Benefits package
- Gym membership

If you are interested in this position, please submit your resume and cover letter to info@accutempsystems.com