

MILLWRIGHT JOURNEYPERSON

Job Summary

Arcadian Projects Inc. is a Kitchener based contractor, involved in a number of construction and energy projects in Ontario. We are looking for a Millwright Journeyperson to join our team of professional trades. The successful candidate will have experience in the industrial and commercial fields; energy project experience is an asset.

- Candidates must have a valid 433A certificate of qualifications, registered with the Ontario College of Trades.
- Candidates must have valid Working at Heights, WHMIS and an Ontario Driver's License with clean Driver's Abstract.

Qualifications:

- CWB welding certificates considered an asset.
- Safe crane hoisting and rigging practices.
- Ability to lift 50lbs.
- Service, clean and perform preventative maintenance .
- Energy project experience an asset.
- Self-motivated individual.
- Ability to collaborate with others and/or work independently.
- Believes, promotes and adheres to safe work practices, and complies with all applicable legislative health and safety policies and procedures.
- Highly reliable individual dedicated to continuous improvement with proven leadership abilities.
- Good housekeeping process to ensure that work area is clean of debris and hazards at all times.
- Punctual disposition.
- Able to demonstrate appropriate and effective interpersonal skills with peers, partners, and public as well as clients and co-workers.
- Carry out a variety of tasks to support company trade services.
- Strong problem-solving skills in all areas of the business.
- Experience in material & equipment ordering & procurement.
- Ability to interpret & meet job schedules.
- Ability to effectively co-ordinate work activities.

Job Type: Full-time, to start immediately.

We Offer

- Competitive compensation and benefits package with RRSP matching.
- Opportunities for growth and development.
- Diversified work opportunities in the ICI and energy markets.
- An open and collaborative work environment.

Please send resumes to arcadianhr@arcadianprojects.ca

At Arcadian Projects we support a culture of inclusion, equity and equality; this promotes growth, confidence and cohesion amongst our team of partners, clients and peers. We look to connect with individuals that are career minded professionals who can collaborate with team members to promote a healthy and safe work environment.